Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is an American holiday celebrated on the fourth Thursday in November. The holiday is about spending time with family and giving thanks for the things you have in your life. Some Americans use this day as an opportunity to volunteer and give back to the community. You often see an increase in volunteers at local soup kitchens during this holiday.

At Thanksgiving, people gather to have a feast. It is traditional to spend it with family, but some people also celebrate "Friendsgiving" with their friends.

Thanksgiving is sometimes called "Turkey Day" because people traditionally eat turkey for dinner. The meal also includes dishes like mashed potatoes, gravy, green bean casserole, sweet potato casserole, cranberry sauce, biscuits, stuffing, and corn. For dessert they eat pumpkin pie, apple pie, or pecan pie. Americans eat more food than on Thanksgiving than on any other day of the year.

On Thanksgiving there are parades in many cities, like the famous Macy's Thanksgiving day parade in New York. Some of the parades are shown on TV and they include floats and giant balloons. Many Americans also watch American football on TV before the Thanksgiving meal.

Today Thanksgiving is one of the most popular American holidays – almost as popular as Christmas.
